Greetings

We appreciate the interest shown in spark, you were a very competitive candidate, we thank you for being an active member of the spark community, therefore a decision couldn't be made, we would like to proceed to the test phase, then you will be in charge of:

-  Preparing an idea of project (Hackathon, contest...)
-  Present the structure of the organizing team and each member of the team with his tasks to realize
-  Planning of the day of the event
-  List of logistics needed

we'll be assisting you in this task so if you need any help don't hesitate, this project will be independent and it will have no interference from any member of the community expects from our vice-president who will be there to assets you and supervise your work, we wish you a good luck.
